

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the far right taking over the media in this country.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest not just one political party.

More and more because of the above, my husband and I are tuning out and watching less television. What's going on is a threat to democracy and to fairness.